Avoiding Clichés in Writing

Can you identify the trite, overused, and plain tired expressions in these two paragraphs?

John Doe had been sleeping like the dead when his alarm clock screamed like a Banshee at him. It was 1:36 p.m., and John had planned to be up bright and early that

Troy University Writing Center