

January 2019 - current

- Provide inpatient medical nutrition therapy, using the ADIME process, for a variety of medical diagnoses and resulting complications at an acute rehabilitation hospital.
- Conduct nutrition screening and care planning for patients.
- Record treatment, patient progress, and responses in an electronic medical record.
- Evaluate nutrition intake of clients for adequacy and assess the nutritional status of patients, making appropriate recommendations for inpatient clinical setting.
- Communicate patient-care issues effectively with all members of the medical team including speech therapists, kitchen staff, physicians, nursing staff, case managers, pharmacists, and other ancillary staff.

- Execute duties as a Group Fitness Instructor
- Create and implement physical exercise programs customized for groups

- Executed duties as a Personal Trainer and Group Fitness Instructor.

-